Re: Proposed temporary community centre on the vacant site at Rosemount Shopping Centre, Rathfarnham for Butterfield District Residents' Association.

A Chara,

With reference to your letter dated 12th March, 1969, regarding planning permission in connection with above, I am to inform you that before the application can be considered under the Local Government (Planning and Development) Act 1963
the following information must be submitted in triplicate:-

- (1) The applicant's interest in the site is not stated.
- (2) The curtilage of the site proposed should be clearly outlined in red on a revised location plan.
- (3) The location of the proposed building on the site is also required.
- (4) Details of the proposed car parking arrangements, related to the proposed uses, floor areas and number of persons attending, are required.

Misc, 1c meas,
