- (1) There is no other available to serve the proposal.
- (2) The site would appear to be too small to accommodate the proposal and at the same time comply with a satisfactory building line and providing adequate off-street car parking facilities.
- (3) The proposal on account of its character would be injurious to the amenity of the adjoining residential development.
- (4) The site is outside the Development area envisaged for the first five years as indicated in the Draft Development Plan.

Notes: You are informed that the development already committed on the site is unauthorised as permission has not been granted under the Local Government (Planning and Development) Act, 1963, and that the owner is liable to prosecution under the Act.
