To: Michael J.O'Neill & Son,71, Middle Abbey St.,Dublin, 1.Reference No. in Planning Register of Dublin County Council 4195Planning Control No. 11122Application received 19th Sept. 1967APPLICANT Laurence Coogan

In pursuance of its functions under the above mentioned Act the Dublin County Council, being the Planning Authority for the County Health District of Dublin, did by order P/1255/67 dated 17th November 1967 make a decision pursuant to Section 26 (1) of the Act to grant an outline permission for:

Dwellinghouse at Tay Lane, Rathcoole

subject to the following conditions:-

- (1) That no constructional work be put in hands until detailed drawings have been submitted to and approved by the County Council under the Local Government (Planning and Development) Act, 1963.
- (2) That no vehicular access be permitted to the existing dual-carriageway west of the site.

Note: The applicant is advised to consult with the Planning Authority before submitting detailed plans for the proposed dwellinghouse on this site.

If there is no appeal to the Minister for Local Government against this decision, outline permission will be granted by the Council on the expiration of the period for the taking of such appeal. If every appeal made in accordance with the Act has been withdrawn, the Council will grant the outline permission as soon as may be after the withdrawal.

Signed on behalf of the Dublin County Council:

for County Secretary

Date: 17th November 1967

NOTE: An appeal against the decision may be made to the Minister by the applicant within one month from the date of receipt by the applicant of this notification or by any other person within twenty-one days of the date of the decision. The appeal shall be in writing and shall state the subject matter of the appeal and grounds of the appeal and the nature of the appellant's interest in the property affected and should be addressed to the Secretary, Department of Local Government, Custom House, Dublin 1. When an appeal has been duly made and has not been withdrawn, the Minister for Local Government will determine the application for outline permission as if it has been made to him in the first instance.
