

Lewis powers Irish to win

GABY LEWIS fired a wonderful 47 from 39 balls in a Player of the Match performance, while Leah Paul took four wickets as Ireland women squared up the T20 series with Scotland with a 67-run victory in Stormont yesterday.

Having won the toss, Ireland captain Laura Delany, who became her country's most capped T20 player, opted to bat and it was the partnership of Lewis, who hit six boundaries, and Shauna Kavanagh that set the platform for victory, as Scotland were set a target of 137 runs.

But with Paul and the rest of the bowlers in great form, the Scots were all out for 76 in 16 overs.

The two sides return to Stormont for today's game, which begins at 1pm.

BACK INJURY 'WORRIES' BERNAL

CYCLING
by SAM LOVETT

EGAN BERNAL will swerve the Tour de France and probably the Olympics as well because of a troublesome back injury although he is optimistic the issue will not derail his hopes of victory in the Giro d'Italia.

The Colombian sits two minutes and 24 seconds ahead of nearest challenger Damiano Caruso but the race leader is managing a back complaint that ruined his 2020 season. 'I'm not going to lie, it still hurts me more than anything in the starts or halfway through, then it worries me because it could be affecting the lower back,' he said on the final rest day.
