

Matt finish helps gloss over pain of Ryder Cup

By DEREK LAWRENSON

HOW appropriate that a Ryder Cup venue proved the setting as Matt Fitzpatrick moved on from last month's bitter disappointment at Whistling Straits with a fine win in the Andalucia Masters yesterday.

Playing for the first time since Europe's whipping in Wisconsin, the 27-year-old found the claustrophobic confines of tricky Valderrama far more to his liking as he hunted down fellow Englishman Laurie Canter and Swede Sebastian Soderberg with a final-round 69 for a three-stroke success.

It was the seventh victory of his career and the only Englishman to win that many titles at a younger age were Nick Faldo, Lee Westwood and Peter Oosterhuis.

He joins a list of Valderrama winners including Sergio Garcia, Bernhard Langer, Colin Montgomerie, Faldo and Seve Ballesteros, who also captained Europe to victory there in the 1997 Ryder Cup.

'It was on the bucket list to win here with all its history and to do it with a bogey-free round on Sunday afternoon feels extra-special,' said the Sheffield man.

Fitzpatrick left the Ryder Cup feeling unlucky to emerge pointless from three matches and determined to end the season on a high. He can occasionally look short of artillery on courses with wide open fairways that suit the bombers, but proper tests such as Valderrama play right into his skilful hands.

Prize guy: Matt Fitzpatrick holds the trophy aloft

This was a masterclass in patience as he waited for his less experienced rivals to crack.

While Canter struggled after building up a three-stroke lead early on and Soderberg fell apart completely over the closing two holes, Fitzpatrick hit the front for the first time at the 16th, where he followed up 15 pars with a precious birdie.

At the dauntingly difficult par-five 17th, where Soderberg lost a ball to run up an ugly seven, Fitzpatrick calmly posted another gain that effectively sealed his triumph.

Now fifth in the Race to Dubai, he will have the chance to win the season-long pursuit when it reaches its climax in the Middle East next month. At the final event, the DP World Tour Championship in Dubai, it just so happens that Fitzpatrick will be the defending champion.

For Canter, who led by two strokes going into the final round, it was another learning experience following his runner-up finish at the BMW PGA Championship at Wentworth.

He shouldn't be too down on himself, for it's hard to imagine a harder course to win for the first time than this one, where the margins are so small.

On the PGA Tour, Rory McIlroy was tied for the lead with Collin Morikawa after 10 holes of his final round of the CJ Cup in Las Vegas last night.

LITTLE'S WORLD CUP DREAM ABOUT TO BECOME REALITY

JOSH LITTLE (right) is ready to help Ireland write a new chapter in their history after reminiscing about the time he stayed up to watch a memorable World Cup victory.

The seamer was 15 and still at school when he took part in an all-nighter alongside Harry Tector six years ago. Gripped to the television, the pair saw Niall O'Brien's unbeaten half-century down West Indies in Nelson, New Zealand, to help the nation register another famous win on the big stage. It was Ireland's last notable triumph at a major tournament, having also recorded excellent victories against Pakistan and England at previous editions. Each of the three aforementioned successes occurred in 50-over cricket but the Men in Green will aim to translate those past glories into the shorter format when they start their ICC Men's Twenty20 World Cup campaign on Monday against Holland. 'Getting to a World Cup was something I always wanted to do and we've had some decent preparation so dying to get stuck into it now,' Little said. 'I remember that World Cup really well and all the lads I looked up to I am playing with now so that is special to be around them.' Paul Stirling, Andy Balbirnie, Kevin O'Brien, George Dockrell and Andy McBride all featured in that historic victory over the West Indies and are part of Ireland's 15-man squad for the competition in Oman and UAE, and they begin their campaign against The Netherlands today (11am).

LAWRENCE CELEBRATES FIRST PRO WIN

TREVOR LAWRENCE was proud of the Jacksonville Jaguars' battling performance against the Miami Dolphins as the number one draft pick celebrated his first professional win and the end of the second-longest NFL losing streak in history. A rocking Tottenham Hotspur Stadium played host to an intense all-Florida encounter yesterday, with the Dolphins going ahead through a Jaylen Waddle touchdown. 'It's different, it's special,' Lawrence said. 'Obviously we've had a rough start to the year, been through a lot of adversity even in this game, just having to fight back, battle back and find a way to win. I'm just really proud of this group.'
