OPEN champion Collin Morikawa is relishing playing in front of Japanese fans again after the 'dull' atmosphere of a spectator-free Olympics. Morikawa (right) is the top-ranked player in this week's ZOZO Championship, which returns to Narashino Country Club after being staged in California last year due to Covid-19.

The world number three, who is of Japanese descent, is joint favourite for the title with Olympic gold medallist Xander Schauffele.

'These are some of the best fans. I was here earlier for the Olympics and we didn't have anyone and it just felt dull. Even though it was the Olympics and we knew what we were playing for, it has a different feeling when you have fans,' he said.

IRELAND'S Rhys McClenaghan was left frustrated at the World Gymnastics Championships in Japan yesterday where he failed to advance to the qualifiers after there was a 90-minute break prior to his routine in order to carry out the cleaning of the pommel horse apparatus.

The cleaning took place after a Colombian gymnast had tested positive for Covid-19.

Ireland facing winner-takes-all shootout with Namibia following big loss to Sri Lanka

IRELAND face a winner-takes-all showdown against Namibia tomorrow after a resounding 70-run defeat by Sri Lanka, who became the first side to qualify from the T20 World Cup first round stage yesterday.

Sri Lanka were on the ropes after lurching to eight for three inside the first 10 balls in Abu Dhabi and were grateful for a decisive 123-run stand between Pathum Nissanka and Wanindu Hasaranga.

Nissanka struck 61 off 47 balls and Hasaranga top-scored with 71 from the same number of deliveries while a useful cameo from captain Dasun Shanaka (21 not out from 11) ushered Sri Lanka to a formidable 171 for seven.

The trio were the only batsmen to reach double figures for Sri Lanka as Josh Little proved the standout bowler with four for 23 for Ireland, whose inability to contain Nissanka and Hasaranga in the middle overs was crucial.

Ireland lost wickets at regular intervals in response and while a 53-run partnership between captain Andy Balbirnie (41) and Curtis Campher (24) gave them brief hope, they subsided to 101 all out in 18.3 overs.

Sri Lanka have made sure of their progress from the group but must defeat Holland to guarantee top spot.

Ireland's Andy Balbirnie

IRELAND'S men's hockey team take on Russia in Cardiff today (4pm), knowing only a win will keep their chances of reaching January's World Cup alive.

Advance and they will meet either Wales or Italy on Saturday for a winner-takes-all showdown for one of the two spot on offer this week from the tournament.

Goalkeeper Jamie Carr, believes the side has shown significant improvement on August's European Championships.

'We're headed in the right direction for sure,' Carr said ahead of the tournament this week.

'We have checked all the boxes before the tournament, made sure everything was covered and the lads are raring to go,' he said.

Games will be streamed live on eurohockeytv.org.
