Brawn says an agreement is in place to double the number of sprint races to six next season. The shortened format – one third-distance of a normal race – was introduced for the first time at Silverstone in July, with this month's Brazilian Grand Prix to host the third and concluding sprint event of the campaign – the other took place at Monza in September. Brawn, 66, claimed the new concept was popular among the younger fans.

JOS BUTTLER led England out of their first mini-crisis of the T20 World Cup and to the brink of the semi-finals as his maiden international century in the format underpinned a 26-run victory over Sri Lanka.

England were asked to defend a total for the first time in the tournament following three commanding wins chasing, and they were initially suffocated by Sri Lanka's bowlers after lurching to 47 for three from 10 overs in Sharjah. Buttler, fresh from match-winning heroics against Australia, reined in his aggressive instincts to begin with, taking 45 balls to reach 50, before exploding in thrilling style to finish unbeaten on 101 from 67 deliveries.

He clattered the final ball of the innings for six to reach his ton and steer England to 163 for four, the bulk of which was made up of a 112-run stand between Buttler (right) and Eoin Morgan, before Sri Lanka responded with 137 all out.
