Harry Tector both hit half-centuries as Ireland beat the West Indies by two wickets to seal victory in their three-match one-day international series.

Having lost the first match by 24 runs, Ireland had won the second, rescheduled clash by five wickets to take the series into a decider, with the visitors turning on the style to secure victory in Kingston with 31 balls to-spare.

Things had started well for the West Indies as Shai Hope cracked 53 from just 39 balls at the top of the imnings after Ireland had won the toss and elected to field.

field.

But he fell to Craig Young, with the hosts losing three wickets for just four runs as the middle order failed to take hold of proceedings.

Jason Holder ensured a competitive score with an impressive 44 before being run out, with the West Indies posting a total of 212 all out - Odean Smith unbeaten on 20 from 10 balls.

Ireland could not have made a more contrasting start as William Porterfield was out off the first ball of the reply, caught by Akeal Hosein off the bowling of Alzarri Joseph.

Captain Paul Sterling (44) put on 73 runs with McBrine before he was trapped lbw by Hosein - but then McBrine and Tector (left) went to work, the pair shining once more to add 79 for the third wicket.

McBrine (59) and Tector (52) would eventually fall and there was a wobble from the tourists with no-one else scoring over 11-but they still had enough to get over the line as Young found the boundary to score the winning runs.

Meanwhile, Pat Cummins described winning his first Ashes as Australia captain as 'incredible' after his side sealed a 4-0 series victory over England in Hobart.

England were chasing 271 in the day/night game but eventually suffered a 146-run defeat after collapsing from 68 without loss to 124 all out.

'It's incredible, an Ashes series is one you have in your diary for a couple of years,' Cummins said.

'They're the big series that you want to peak at and to be thrown the captaincy beforehand as well, I couldn't have predicated how the last six or seven weeks have gone.

'Everything's gone to plan. There's so many positives to take out of it and for this team to be part of Ashes history, it's been phenomenal."

Cummins was full of praise for Travis Head - who finished the series as leading run scorer - and 22-year-old all-rounder Cameron Green.

He added: 'I think someone like Trav Head, he's still seen as one of the younger players but he's got a hell of a lot of experience in domestic cricket.

'I think being dropped last year and coming back in this year, he came back with a real calmness about him, a real confidence and you saw that straight away in the Gabba, he just played his game and has just really grown.

'Cam Green very similarly. Last summer I thought he showed signs of his potential and this summer he's really confident.

'I think he grew as a batter and bowler throughout it and he's just as good as any all-rounder in the world at the moment.'

that he hopes this Ashes victory is 'the beginning' of more success to come for his side.

He added: 'This is just hopefully the beginning.
'I feel like we're in a really good place. There's no imminent retirees hopefully, so hopefully we're building something big for the next few years.'
