RYAN Fox held his nerve to complete a wire-to-wire victory in the Ras Al Khaimah Classic and claim his second DP World Tour title.

Fox, the son of former New Zealand All Black Grant Fox, took a six-shot lead into the final round at Al Hamra Golf Club but saw it cut to just two after covering the first seven holes in one over par.

A birdie on the eighth gave Fox some welcome breathing space, and he then holed from 45 feet on the 12th and also birdied the 13th and 18th on his way to a closing 69 and five-shot win over

"I am pretty happy I could turn it around"

Ross Fisher on 22 under par.

"Probably relief is the main (emotion)," Fox told Sky Sports. "It was a bit of a struggle today.

"Sleeping on a six-shot lead, I did not sleep very well last night and a couple of guys came at me early and I was a bit nervous.

"It was going south pretty quickly and I'm pretty happy I could turn it around and show quite a bit of mental fortitude.

"I had that awful feeling in the pit of my stomach all day but I'm very happy with how I played, a couple of great shots coming down the stretch, and it was nice walking up the last with my putter in my hand knowing I had five or six putts or whatever it was for it (the win)."

Fox had missed the cut on the same course last week as he struggled with a back injury, but the Tour's physios helped him back to full fitness, and he also received a putting tip from South Africa's Shaun Norris at the start of the week which paid massive dividends.

Fisher's closing 66 saw him snatch outright second place

Masi will see his F1 future decided

FORMULA ONE
By JONATHAN MCEVOY

THE future of Formula One race director Michael Masi will be thrashed out by the sport's governing body in London today. The F1 Commission will debate the Australian's fate, following the end to last season in Abu Dhabi, where his decision to withdraw the safety car allowed Max Verstappen to win the title ahead of Lewis Hamilton.

Masi's call disadvantaged Hamilton, who had not taken the opportunity to move on to new tyres. Chief executive Stefano Domenicali feels Masi should be axed but FIA president Mohammed ben Sulayem believes that would be an admission the World Championship result was a mistake.
