Wicklow seek new manager

WICKLOW are on the hunt for a new football manager as Colin Kelly stepped away last night, just four months after being appointed. Kelly (right), who previously managed his native Louth, cited 'work commitments' for his decision and leaves the Garden County immersed in a relegation battle at the bottom of Division 3, having lost to Westmeath, Antrim and Limerick, while picking up their only point in a draw against Fermanagh. Kelly was thanked for his hard work by the Wicklow board whose search for a replacement is likely to be fast-tracked with the county hosting Laois in the Leinster Championship in Aughrim on April 24.

Formula One bosses rule that Russian Mazepin can race on FORMULA ONE bosses met at an extraordinary meeting of the FIA World Motor Sport Council yesterday – but did not expel from competition the only F1 driver from Russia. Nikita Mazepin (right), is the son of an oligarch, Dmitry Mazepin, who is a close associate of Vladimir Putin. An FIA spokesman said: 'We are acting like FIFA, ITF, UCI – we ban national teams, not athletes.' Their statement came with condemnation of events in Ukraine, from Mohammed ben Sulayem, who replaced Jean Todt as FIA president in December. 'We condemn the Russian invasion of Ukraine, our thoughts are with all those suffering,' he said.

A new home is being sought for the Russian Grand Prix, originally scheduled for Sochi on September 25, possibly in Qatar. JONATHAN McEVROY

IRELAND will play white-ball cricket against some of the world's best players this summer as Cricket Ireland yesterday unveiled a 15-match home international season against four test nations. India, New Zealand, South Africa and Afghanistan will visit Ireland over a two-month period, starting with T20 match against India on June 26 at Malahide. Tickets will go on sale shortly for all venues, including Bristol in England, and will be announced on the Cricket Ireland website. SEE: Sport In Brief Page 53
