The case reference for the current alteration is An Bord Pleanála Reference Number ABP-312216-21. The Board decided in accordance with Section 146B (2) of the Act, that the proposed development would constitute a material alteration to the terms of the development. Under Section 146B (8), submission or observations in relation to the request may be made to An Bord Pleanála, during a period of 5 weeks relating to (a) Whether such an alteration should be likely to have significant effects on the environment, (b) Whether the Board should make the alteration to the terms of the development concerned being an alteration other than that to which the request relates or refuse to make the alteration. The Board shall have regard to the submissions or observation made on foot of this invitation. The information relating to the proposed alteration (including the details of the request) may be inspected free of charge or purchased on payment of a specified fee at the offices of Dun Laoghaire Rathdown County Council and the offices of An Bord Pleanála during office opening hours. A submission or observation in relation to the request to alter the terms of the development may be made to An Bord Pleanála, 64 Marlborough Street, Dublin 1. Any person may, within the period of 5 weeks beginning on the date of receipt by An Bord Pleanála of the application and on payment of the prescribed fee of €20 (except for certain prescribed bodies), make a submission or observations in writing to An Bord Pleanála, 64 Marlborough Street, Dublin 1 or online at www.pleanala.ie relating to the implications of the proposed development, if carried out, for proper planning and sustainable development in the area or areas concerned, and the likely effects on the environment or the likely effects on a European site, as the case may be, of the proposed development, if carried out. Submissions or observations duly made will be considered by An Bord Pleanála in making a decision on the application. Such submissions or observations must also include the following information: (a) the name of the person, authority or body making the submission or observations, the name of the person, if any, acting on behalf of that person, authority or body, and the address to which any correspondence relating to the application should be sent, (b) the subject matter of the submission or observations, and (c) the reasons, considerations and arguments on which the submission or observations is or are based. An Bord Pleanála may grant permission for the strategic housing development as proposed, or may grant permission subject to such modifications as it specifies in its decision, or may grant permission in part only, with or without any other modifications it may specify in its decision, or may refuse to grant permission for the proposed development. An Bord Pleanála may attach to a grant of permission such conditions as it considers appropriate. Any enquiries relating to the application process should be directed to the Strategic Housing Development Section of An Bord Pleanála (Tel. 01-8737100.)
