Tsitsipas is on course to retain Monte Carlo crown

By SAM LOVETT

HOLDER Stefanos Tsitsipas moved into the Monte Carlo Masters quarter-finals with a 7-5 7-6 (1) victory over Laslo Djere while fourth seed Casper Ruud was knocked out in straight sets by Grigor Dimitrov.

Tsitsipas broke only once in a match where break points were in short supply but the Greek third seed pounced when it mattered most at the end of both sets to seal victory. The opening set went with serve but Djere was nearly broken when he was down 5-4 after he made three double faults. Djere held on but Tsitsipas switched gears and broke him in his next service game when the Serbian fired wide on set point.

Holding court: Stefanos Tsitsipas advanced to the last eight in the Monte Carlo Masters

Diego Schwartzman fought back from a set down to beat Lorenzo Musetti 2-6 6-4 6-3. Schwartzman was 3-1 down in the second set when he found a second wind and stormed back into the contest to book a quarter-final clash with Tsitsipas. Second seed Alexander Zverev beat Pablo Carreno Busta 6-2 7-5 on the back of a strong first serve. Zverev will take on Jannik Sinner, who rallied from a set and a break down to upset last year's finalist Andrey Rublev. Earlier, Norwegian Ruud became the tournament's latest high-profile casualty as he went down 6-3 7-5 to Bulgarian Dimitrov, who moved into the quarter-finals for a fourth time.
