

Mystic Meg

ARIES March 21 – April 21

When two people hide the attraction they feel for each other, love can't get started. But when you get an opportunity to talk to that person, just a hint of flirtation draws you closer. Work plans go well when you reveal you are ambitious. The luck factor sees three friends with similar names win prizes together.

TAURUS April 22 – May 21

As the sun gets settled in your personality chart there is a golden touch of luck with everything you do. And a local cash-raising event can also be the start of an intriguing friendship. Love certainly has some surprises for you – and they're the kind you really enjoy.

GEMINI May 22 – June 21

The strongest part of your chart is the psychic sector and your understanding of the way other people think makes you so effective. Venus and Mars in your success chart give you a sense of strength as well as a creative skill, and you could make a real breakthrough with a career.

CANCER June 22 – July 23

The truth sector of your chart is focused on recognising your own true feelings and you are ready to commit to a partner on a much deeper level. Yes, this can be a risk, but it's also very rewarding. More travel than you really want to do is part of a job set up, but it is worth it and you could even start to enjoy it.

LEO July 24 – August 23

Your ruling light the sun is in your soulmate chart, making this the perfect time to meet the love of your life, or for you and a partner to realise that you are destined to be together and be happy. Trusting in love and each other is always a bit of a gamble, but it's one you can win.

VIRGO August 24 – September 23

Yes, you want a relationship to be perfect – and right now Venus and Mars focus on your truth chart, and you realise you're ready to go deeper into the love zone. Job wise, it's time to show you believe in your own ideas as well as giving generous support to others. And together you could achieve a lot today.

LIBRA September 24 – October 23

For established partners, you learn much more about each other which can lead to wonderful passion and the kindest love. But you may have to compete with a friend for a job; just be sure you give it your all. Dare to expect the best from a family relationship and you can achieve such a great deal together.

SCORPIO October 24 – November 22

Your marriage chart is at the centre of the action and you may be ready to go public with the fact that you are now a couple. But if you are still single, meeting somebody who is your direct opposite in looks and personal ambition can be the start of the good times.

SAGITTARIUS November 23 – December 22

Feelings may have been too difficult to put into words, but all that changes today, when suddenly you can both talk from the heart and say exactly how you feel. This changes the relationship in a positive way. The natural skill you have for making people laugh could be ready to turn into a career.

CAPRICORN December 23 – January 20

Instead of having to choose between perfect passion and pure romance, you discover you can have both in the same relationship. But you could also work together and at a location that would inspire you. The sun in the winning-most part of your chart gives you the edge in all types of competitions.

AQUARIUS January 21 – February 19

Even if you think that a bigger place to live is little more than a daydream, today your mind is changed when you see a property where the whole family could be happy. Single? It's time to widen the search, instead of thinking of one specific partner. Someone you have admired from afar turns out to be perfect.

PISCES February 20 – March 20

You can talk calmly and quietly about big issues, instead of hiding them. And this takes you deeper into the passion zone than before. When you know you are loved, you are the perfect partner – though at first people are surprised to see you together. You have a lot to offer but be realistic about your expectations.

This is no Ron show

RIVALRY: Allen with O'Sullivan before losing 20-10 UK final to Rocket

PISTOL TARGETS TV DOCO STAR

By ROB MAUL

MARK ALLEN plans to shoot down the Rocket, claiming: The Crucible should not become the Ronnie O'Sullivan Show.

The Pistol will play the world No1 in the last 16 today – their first meeting at the Betfred World Snooker Championship for 13 years.

Six-time world champion O'Sullivan, 36, has a TV camera crew following his every move in Sheffield, documenting his life on and off the baize for a film.

Players on the circuit spend a lot of time fielding questions on O'Sullivan, who still remains the biggest draw in the sport.

But Antrim potter Allen, 36, vowed to get under the skin of his illustrious rival over three sessions spread over two days.

No15 seed Allen said: "I do think Ronnie will equal or beat Stephen Hendry's record of seven world titles. He's a genius and the best to ever play the game."

"He has his documentary crew here and they may want the footage of him equalling the record and lifting the trophy. Of course I want to ruin that and so will other players."

"It's not the Ronnie O'Sullivan Show here at The Crucible, even if that's what his documentary might be. There are other players battling it out, it's not all about him."

"We appreciate how good he is and what he brings to the game but there are players standing in his way."

"If he is still there by the semi-finals, he may be hard to shift."

"I beat him in our only previous Crucible meeting."

"If I play well and control myself, who knows? And who knows how he is feeling – a day in the life of Ronnie O'Sullivan, I'm not sure I'd want to be in it."

"Ronnie will always bring off-table stuff with him. That is part and parcel of what he brings to the sport and how big a draw he is."

"It is not just that he is a genius on the table but the stuff he does off it."

"He is probably the only one in our game that can create the column inches he does."

"He looks in a good place but we all know how quickly that can change with him."
