

Energumene and Chacun Pour Soi are up for a rematch

WILLIE Mullins' duo of Energumene and Chacun Pour Soi will take each other on once more in the William Hill Champion Chase on the opening day of the Punchestown Festival tomorrow.

Energumene came out on top at Cheltenham when winning the Queen Mother Champion Chase

By EOGHAN O'BRIEN

in which Chacun Pour Soi unseated his rider.

Only five will go to post, with Henry de Bromhead responsible for two in Captain Guinness and Envoi Allen. The field is completed by Gordon Elliott's Andy Duffresne.

'We were delighted with Envoi Allen in Cheltenham,' said De Bromhead of the Queen Mother third. 'He jumped and travelled well. We're hoping the better ground will suit him. He's in super form.'

Mullins (right) also dominates the five runners in the Bective Stud Champion Novice Hurdle, but he has surprised some by bringing Sir Gerhard back in trip to two miles. Paul Townend rides the Ballymore Novices' Hurdle winner, with Patrick Mullins riding Dys-art Dynamo, a faller in the Supreme Novices' Hurdle.

Elliott runs two in Mighty Potter and Vina Ardanza, with Oliver McKiernan's Gatsby Grey also running. The third Grade One on the opening day sees De Bromhead's Bob Olinger step up to three miles in the Dooley Insurance Group Champion Novice Chase.

Mullins runs

Capodano, Elliott is represented by Fuvy Road and Noel Meade fields Beacon Edge. Also running is the Alex Hales-trained Millers Bank, so impressive at Aintree.

Mullins fields three in the opening Howden Insurance Brokers' Mares' Novice Hurdle - Dinoblu, Grangee and Instit.
