Hamilton sees no improvement in new Mercedes

LEWIS Hamilton fell silent on the radio following the Miami Grand Prix before admitting Mercedes are no closer to propelling him back to the front.

Hamilton started sixth and finished in the same position after he fell behind team-mate George Russell in the closing stages of Formula One's first visit to Florida.

Russell was able to take advantage of a late safety car period to stop for fresh rubber and pass his team-mate.

Hamilton is already 68 points behind championship leader Charles Leclerc of Ferrari and 23 points adrift of Russell, who has beaten him at the last four grands prix.

'OK, Lewis, well done, mate, so that's P6,' said Hamilton's race engineer Peter Bonnington at the chequered flag.

'Good job today, mate. Just lucked-out again with that safety car... if we go straight (engine) mode one.'

Hamilton did not respond to Bonnington's radio messages as he drove back to the pits.

Mercedes brought a number of updates to their underperforming machine in Miami, but the Silver Arrows remain one-second-a-lap slower than both Ferrari and Red Bull.

Hamilton was asked if he felt his team were any closer to finding a resolution to their early-season woes.

'Not at the moment, no,' he replied. 'We have the same speed as we did at the first race.'

'It is a different perspective and a different point of view this season.'

'We always try to go forward, but it is quite difficult when you are not really going forward.'

Mercedes are set to bring further new parts to the Spanish Grand Prix a week on Sunday,

Standing still: Former world champion Lewis Hamilton

but a quick-fix is growing increasingly unlikely.

'We have been flying in the fog since the beginning,' said Mercedes team principal Toto Wolff.

'It is clear there is potential in the car and it is fast, but we just don't understand how to unlock that potential.'

Winning start for classy O'Rourke

BOXING

LISA O'Rourke got the Irish team off to a winning start at the AIBA women's world championships in Istanbul yesterday, overpowering Mbabi Brigette of the Democratic Republic of Congo in their first-round clash at light-middleweight. The Castlereagh native, who is a younger sister of Tokyo Olympian and European champion Aoife, claimed a convincing win on all five judges' scorecards, with scores of 30-24, 30-25, 30-25, 30-26 and 30-27. Meanwhile, Shannon Sweeney faces Argentina's Aidana Lopez in the first round of the straw-weight division this afternoon.
