EASY Game led home a one-two for Willie Mullins in the BoyleSports An Ríocht Chase at Killarney. Stablemate Melon was sent off the 13-8 favourite for the Grade Three contest, with Paul Townend setting out to make all on the joint top-weight, while Brian Hayes was content to track him on the eventual 3-1 winner. It was a straight match between the Mullins runners with two to jump, but Easy Game just edged in front before jumping the last and he coasted home one and a half lengths to the good. Gin On Lime kept on for a 16-length third. Hayes said: 'He has been lucky for me and that was a nice race for him.'
