

Ireland beaten by onslaught from superior batting line-up

INDIA JUST TOO CLASSY

By CRAIG EASDOWN

A BLISTERING Harry Tector half-century helped Ireland recover in the first of the LevelUp11 Indian Tour of Ireland T20 Series but India's power-packed batting line-up ensured a comprehensive win for the tourists in a game reduced to 12 overs a side.

After a lengthy, frustrating delay, during which the announcement of a start time was imminent on several occasions before the inclement weather returned, India made the new ball talk, having won the toss and elected to bowl.

"Ireland were 22-3 and in dire need of a rescue act"

Bhuvneshwar Kumar opened up and struck almost immediately, bowling Ireland captain Andrew Balbirnie out with a beauty fifth ball, a back-of-a-length delivery decking in sharply to clip the top of off-stump.

Paul Stirling signalled Ireland's intent in the shortened contest, hitting the first legal delivery of Hardik Pandya's over to the fence, but perished straight after, slicing the India captain to mid-off. Gareth Delany also fell within the four-over powerplay, nicking behind off Avesh Khan, and as the fielding restrictions lifted, Ireland were 22-3 and in need of a rescue act.

They got one from Tector, fresh off hitting a half-century in his previous T20I innings against UAE, and determined to make his fine form count. He got going against the left-arm spin of Axar Patel, and showed he could handle high pace too when Umran Maik was introduced.

Maik clocked speeds in excess of 97mph in the 2022 Indian Premier League, and his first delivery at the top level was clocked at 92mph.

But Tector was more than up to the challenge, driving through the on-side for four and then hooking imperiously for six. Tector found an able partner in Lorcan Tucker, content to play the supporting hand at first before smashing Pandya for two consecutive sixes.

The partnership was broken a ball after it had reached 50.

Tucker slog-sweeping Yuzvendra Chahal to the fielder in the deep, but there was no stopping Tector. Bhuvneshwar, nigh-on unplayable earlier in the piece, was scythed through point for four before being driven high and handsome over cover high and Chahal was played out in the penultimate over before Tector walked off with 64 off 33 balls having dragged Ireland to a fighting total of 108-4, but India's powerful batting line-up won out, scoring them a total of 111-3.

The second and final T20I in the series will take place on Tuesday, 28 June, at the same venue.
