TODAY'S ACTION

WOMEN'S INTERNATIONAL England v Holland (Elland Road, 8.0) Live on ITV4

CRICKET - 5th ODI: Sri Lanka v Australia (Colombo, 10am). 2nd Test - day 1 of 5: West Indies v Bangladesh (Gros Islet, 3pm).

Luck at last: Jack Leach

Fortune finally favours Leach

JACK LEACH was happy to benefit from a rare slice of good luck with the freak dismissal of Henry Nicholls on the first day of England's final Test against New Zealand.

Leach's international career has been disrupted by a number of unfortunate circumstances and was overdue a change in fortune and it came in the final over before tea at Headingley, when Nicholls drilled him hard down the ground only for an unplanned diversion off the middle of non-striker Daryl Mitchell's bat.

The ball looped to Alex Lees at mid-off, giving England a bonus wicket in New Zealand's stumps score of 225 for five.

Leach would probably have preferred to focus on trapping opener Will Young lbw on his first delivery of the day, but there was only one dismissal up for debate at the close.

'It was unbelievable, I've never seen anything like it,' he said. 'I didn't even know if that was allowed, but I'll take any wicket I can get. You get enough that don't go your way. It was very lucky for me.'

England took three wickets in the morning session after being asked to bowl first in serene conditions only for an unbroken stand of 102 between the in-form Daryl Mitchell and Tom Blundell to rebalance the scales.

Third Test (Headingley, NZ won toss and opted to bat), Day One: New Zealand 225/5 (D Mitchell 78*, T Blundell 45*, J Leach 2/75).
