

Reinstatement of Orchard trees within the walled garden

Permeable paving incorporated into the open space areas to allow the fire tender access

Proposed protection and retention of natural stone walls on site boundaries and internal boundaries

Proposed linkage to transport corridors to wider GI network

Proposed mixed woodland planting along boundary

Green roof less than 1m in depth

Existing gate lodge to be restored

Proposed protection of parkland style mature trees and vegetation groups

Proposed retention of parkland style estate rail boundary treatment

Proposed parkland trees and pollinator bulb mixes to blend with adjacent parkland style open space

Existing Manor house and outbuildings to be restored

|  |   |  |                     |
|--|---|--|---------------------|
| JANE Mc CORKELLLandscape Architect<small>13 Dunmore Park, Clonsilla, Dublin 15         Tel: 01 856 8562 Email: jane@jancorkell.com</small> | Registered Landscape Architect<small>The Irish Landscape Architects' Institute (ILA) is a member of the Royal Institute of the Architects of Ireland (RAI).</small> | EXISTING AND PROPOSED GI PLAN                                  | Day No: PP196-CP-03 |
|  |   | Date: 1/2021 Scale: A1   | Project: 231124MS   |
|  |   | Client: MSJA Ltd   | Designer: JMC       |
|  |   | Project: Prospect House, Stocking Lane, Ballyboden, Co. Dublin | Rev:                |