SERENA WILLIAMS revealed the crucial role Tiger Woods played in her tennis swansong after the fellow superstar led the cheers in her latest stunning US Open victory.

Woods sat among Williams' woods sat among Williams entourage along with her sister Venus as Serona beat world No.2 Anett Kontaveit 7-6 2-6 6-2 on another magical night in the Arthur Ashe Statium.

The 15-time Major win-ner repeatedly got to his feet to shout and clap amid wild

Finish

And moments after the finish, he tweeted: "It was a privilege to watch greatness. Congrais Escrenawilliams:

Williams revealed in a Vogue article that she had sought advice from Woods after tearing a hamstring at Wimbledon last year.

The golf legend suffered a horror car crash in February 2021 and returned to play in three Majors this year.

Asked about Woods, 23-time Grand Slam event winner

■ Neil McLEMAN

Williams said: "He's one of the reasons I'm here, one of the main reasons I'm still playing. We taiked a lot.

"He was really trying to get me motivated. There were a few reasons but try uses like.

I do. I love a challenge, and I'm rising to the challenge. And I'm loving this crowd." Williams raused her level of play again from her opening win over world No.80 Danka Kovinic and said she was loving playing without any pressure.

ing paying which are it is a bonus, she said. "I don't have anything to prove. I don't have anything to win. I have absolutely nothing to lose.

Awesome

"I just feel like I have had a big red X on my back since I won the US Open in '99. It's kind of fun.

"I feel like I've already won, figuratively, mentally, It's just pretty awesome the things that I've done."

For the second match running, the raucous crowd unnerved her opponent and Estonian Kontavel broke down in tears in her post-match press conference after admitting. "It was hard, it was something I never experienced before.

"I thought I played a decent match. She was better today."

Next to face the wall of noise is a Aussie world No.46 Ajla Tornijanovic.
