

Dear Sir/Madam,

I would like to bring to your attention serious concerns I have in connection with planning reference SD22A/0346 mixed development consisting of one public house and 26 apartments at the Finches public house, Rowlagh shopping centre, Neilstown road, Clondalkin, Dublin 22.

I live in 4 Chaplins Row with my Family which is directly facing the proposed development. As an owner occupier we already have serious issues with anti-social behavior on a daily basis. There has been no public consultation with the local community and this has come as a total surprise to all of the local residents. From a personal point of view having a proposed new structure of that height with a number of balconies overlooking my home as well as a proposed new entrance to a busy local pub, which in the past has been a source of serious anti-social behavior could seriously effect mine and my neighbors quality of life.

In recent years a neighboring development which also has external balconies facing onto the road have been a major source of nuisance and disturbance and we do not wish to have a repeat of this. I would also be seriously concerned about parking facilities for the new development as there is very limited parking within the area at present.

Thank you for your consideration,

Regards,

Aisling Grendon.
