GOLDEN EYE FOR DELANY

THE last Irish sportsman called Delany to step out on the Melbourne Cricket Ground ended his day with a gold medal. Gareth Delany hopes to end today's warm-up game against Zimbabwe with a golden ticket for the T20 World Cup next week. The Leinster all-rounder is in line for a place but Ireland's preparations have been blighted by rain. Wicketkeeper-bat Lorcan Tucker credits new head coach Heinrich Malan as a 'breath of fresh air' for a team on the rise. Tucker, 26, now has four T20I half-centuries, with a highest score of 84 v USA - all coming since his move up the batting order to number three. Heinrich has been a breath of fresh air. He's challenged us to think differently and to apply different methods to achieve the desired results. It's no coincidence that the team is in such a strong mental state going into this tournament.
