Re: Amendment under Section 146A of the Planning and Development Act 2000 (as amended) – Register Reference SD21B/0616.

Planning permission was granted under Register Reference SD21B/0616 for: Single storey extension to the rear and 2 storey extension to side of existing dwelling; new pitched roof to existing dwelling; widening of existing driveway entrance at 33, Ballyroan Heights, Dublin 16.

During the inputting of the application one of the applicant's names was omitted from the application in error. Due to this clerical error the final grant of permission issued with only 1 applicant's name included.

A request was received from Dara Shovlin, one of the applicants, to have his name included on the Grant of permission.

Under Section 146A of the Planning & Development Act, 2000 (as amended), a planning authority may amend a planning permission granted by it for the purposes of –

- (i) Correcting any clerical error therein,
- (ii) facilitating the doing of anything pursuant to the permission or decision where the doing of that thing may reasonably be regarded as having been contemplated by a particular provision of the permission or decision or the terms of the permission or decision taken as a whole, but which was not expressly provided for in the permission or decision, or
- (iii) otherwise facilitating the operation of the permission or decision.'

Following consideration of this request, it is recommended that (i) the omitted applicant's name be included on the Grant of Permission (ii) a revised Notification of Decision to Grant Permission be issued. It is considered that this amendment is not material.
