By SAM LOVETT

RELAND battled bravely but were ultimately undone by a brilliant display of fastbowling by Australia's lethal quickies.

They went down to a 42-run defeat in the Men's T20 World Cup game in Brisbane, but thanks to Lorcan Tucker the margin was a lot narrower than expected.

The Dubliner played the innings of his life in front of a partisan Gabba crowd, scoring an unbeaten 71 off 48 balls, becoming the leading run-scorer in the competition. However, the rest of his team collapsed in a Halloween horror show with the next best score just 14. The Aussies had made 179, a testing score and Tucker came in at 18-1 when Andy Balbirnie was dismissed. He still hadn't scored a run when Ireland collapsed to 25-5 with Mitchell Starc and Glenn Maxwell each picking up two wickets in an over.

But the Pembroke man steadied the ship and played a series of stunning shots including a huge six into the grandstand. Tucker was particularly severe on Starc, scoring 37 off the 18 balls he faced off the left-armer.

He eventually ran out of partners, just as Irish fans were starting to dream the impossible.

It leaves Ireland unlikely to reach the semi-final but Tucker's defiance did a huge favour to England who remain ahead of Australia on run-rate - the England supporters club renamed their twitter account Lorcan Tucker's Barmy Army last night.

Australia had lost their dangerman David Warner for 3 to Barry McCarthy's first delivery and he picked up Mitchell Marsh off the first ball of his second ov
