RUGBY WINGER SHINES

HANSEN IS STANDOUT

EASY THREEES. Connacht celebrate after Jack Aungier third try of the game at the Sportsground CONNACHT captain Jack Carty praised his men for having the resilience to break down Scarlets and secure their first bonus-point win of the season.

Irish winger Mack Hansen was the hero as he crowned a superb display with tries at the end of either half after a tough opening to the season which saw them lose four from five.

"We are still wasteful, but we dug in and got over the line," said Carty.

Superb

Hansen provided the spark for Andy Friend's men to see off a Scarlets side who only trailed by five points (16-11) having played against the elements in the opening half.

Hansen crowned a superb display with tries at the end of each half, but Connacht's failure to turn quality chances into scores stopped them from being further ahead after being on top for most of the half with 67 per cent possession.

Connacht 36 Scarlets 14

JOHN FALLON reports

They got a glorious start when lock Niall Murray charged down a clearance from Scarlets scrum-half Kieran Hardy on the 22 and raced through to touch down after just 27 seconds.

Scarlets out-half Sam Costelow pulled back a penalty after five minutes.

Carty cancelled that before Scarlets struck after a game of kicking tennis.

Full-back Johnny McNicholl collected a kick from Hansen before countering from deep. His run set up centre Steff Evans to score in the right corner and tie the game 8-8.

Carty and Costelow exchanged penalties before Connacht got over the line when Hardy was pinged for a knock-on as he collected the ball at the base of a ruck.

This time Connacht made the chance count after a penalty, with a superb pass from Carty putting Hansen in at the left corner.

Connacht lost Paul Boyle

to a yellow card for a dangerous clearout on Tom Price but extended their lead after 54 minutes after a penalty to the left corner from Carty was taken by Cian Prendergast. From the drive, replacement tight-head Jack Aungier got the touchdown to score his third try of the season.

Landed

Scarlets cut the gap to 21-14 when Rhys Patchell converted a penalty.

But Connacht re-established their 10-point lead when David Hawkshaw took over kicking duties and landed a penalty from 35m.

Scarlets finished with 13 players when No 8 Sione Kalamafoni was binned as they conceded multiple penalties as Connacht drove at their line. Referee Marius van der Westhuizen also awarded a penalty try and binned flanker Dan Thomas.

Hansen then chased and hacked on a grubber from Carty to beat Patchell to the touchdown.

SCORES: Connacht: tries, M Hansen (2), N Murray, J Aungier, penalty try; pens, J Carty (2), D Hawkshaw. Scarlets: try, S Evans; pens, S Costelow (2), R Patchell.

ULSTER'S SHARKS GAME OFF

ULSTER'S URC game with Sharks due to be played in Durban this afternoon, has been cancelled.

It is one of two Round 6 games, scheduled to be played in South Africa today, to be lost as Lions-Glasgow Warriors has also been postponed.

AN URC statement yesterday said:

Derek FOLEY

"Due to gastroenteritis infections, the United Rugby Championship have confirmed it is not possible for Ulster or Glasgow Warriors to field full playing squads.

Care

"In order to ensure a duty of care towards the players involved, and given the medical advice received from all key stakeholders, the United Rugby Championship has made the decision to postpone the fixtures.

"The league will now move to examine potential dates to reschedule the games and will update in due course."

Ulster will fly home ahead of Saturday's game against Munster at Thomond Park.
