To whom it may concern,

I would like to make an objection to the planning permission notice for the development of Scholarstown House Site (SD22A/0401). I have included my address at the top of this email and proof of payment attached.

This planning permission notice is ludicrous. The area is already unable to cope with the amount of apartments and housing in the area. The infrastructure is simply not there for this to go ahead. The roads are already cluttered with people parking on both sides of the road as you enter Orlagh Estate, an ongoing issue in the area. To then seek permission to build 75 apartments with only 40 car parking spaces seems completely ridiculous. The roads surrounding the Knocklyon area are overwhelmed with traffic and this will only add to this ongoing issue. In terms of public transport there is currently only one regular Dublin bus route that passes this site.

The schools are full and have lengthy waiting lists at both primary and secondary level. This is just causing further stress for the residents of Knocklyon.

The county council have an obligation to put the well-being of people first. Adding more apartments and no amenities to this area will make it unsafe and overwhelming for residents.

Yours sincerely,

Jessica Moran
