RE: SD22A/A0066 'Hillview', Dispensary Lane, Lucan- Decision Order : 1579 Compliance with schedule 2 Conditions.

12. Street Naming and Dwelling Numbering. Prior to the commencement of any works on site the applicant, owner or developer shall submit the following for the written agreement of the Planning Authority: (i) A dwelling numbering scheme, for the development as approved that is in accordance with the Planning Authority's policy and requirements for such schemes, along with associated proposed signage for the scheme. The agreed number shall be placed on each house upon completion so as to be clearly legible from the proposed access road or the public realm and shall be erected in a manner to be clearly legible, and in accordance with Planning Authority's requirements. The applicant, developer, or owner is advised to consult with Naming and Numbering section of the Planning Authority in advance of lodging the required scheme. REASON: In the interest of the proper planning and sustainable development of the area and compliance with the South Dublin County Council's Development Plan.

Dear Stephen ,

I am writing to seek clarification on the Permission to build 3 houses @ the Dispensary Lane as presented in the attached drawing.

The address was formally known Hillview , the neighbouring properties are all named rather than numbered these include the Town hall, Methodist church, the parochial house and the EIR -( electrical exchange ) – We propose the three houses are numbered as 5, 6 and 7 Dispensary Lane as presented on the plan-

I would be grateful if you could assist us to satisfy the above referenced condition.

Kind regards

Niall Mc Brierty
